Roxanne Bugay, Director

Instructors

Angela Bugay Cruz: Dancing and smiling since she was 2½, Miss Angela is a Governor Mifflin honor roll graduate. She lives in Shillington with her husband, Johan and their beautiful daughter Isabella. Angela currently teaches all styles of dance here at Dance Expressions. "Miss Angela" is a former winner of the Star Search Spectacular with her partner Johan. As they qualified for Dancer of the year in New York City, they left with national titles in the duo category. She has toured with Dance Olympus and plans to continue to study dance while she teaches this year. This energetic Award Winning dancer shares her love for dance with all of her students. Known for emphasizing technique and energy, Miss Angela's students get a work out in class.

Johan Cruz: Bringing his unique style to all classes, hip-hop is his expertise. Johan also teaches boys ballet, and couples this year. He grew up in Reading and is a graduate of Reading High School. After graduating from Reading High School, Johan attended BTI where he received an Associate's Degree in Internet Network Engineering. Johan now works for Traypak Corporation as their IT Lead Analyst. He is also responsible for editing music, creating and developing the recital program. This award winning dancer has also choreographed award winning dances. His high energy level and enthusiasm for dance makes his students love his classes. He lives in Shillington with his wife, Angela, and their daughter Isabella.

Jill Fischbach: Dancing since she was 3 years old, Jill grew up in Ephrata. A graduate from Ephrata High School and Millersville University, she received her dance and teacher training at a local studio and Lanco Gymnastics. She has been teaching for the past 11 years. Miss Jill specializes in acrobats and couples. She will be sharing her expertise with us two nights a week this year. Jill lives in Ephrata with her husband, Gary, their son Xavier, and their boxer Bailey. Miss Jill is expecting a new baby boy this fall.

Sherry Hill: Known as the "ultimate stretcher," Sherry started taking dance lessons at age 5. She grew up in Kenhorst and is a graduate of Governor Mifflin High School. After graduation, she studied dance in Philadelphia and New York. Sherry has been teaching dance for 25 years, and is known for her emphasis on proper technique. Her specialties include teaching jazz, and tap, to all ages. In addition to dance, she has choreographed for local fashion shows and charity balls. She now lives in Kenhorst with her husband, Steven, their two sons, Tyler and Ryan, and their dog Lexie.

Robyn Moser: Robyn, a dancer since the age of six, was born in Hershey. Robyn learned to dance and taught with several studios in the area. Ballet has always been her love. After graduating from Garden Spot High School, she trained and studied with several studios along the eastern coast. She also performed in the former Soviet Union and other eastern block countries. Continuing to study in New York, her specialties include ballet, lyrical, and Pointe. Miss Robyn lives in Denver with her husband, Ed, their three lovely children, Mackenzie, Colin, and Carrington, and their dog Sophie. She will be sharing her talents with us two nights a week this year.

- Tuition is payable in ten installments, with each installment due on the first of each month.
- Checks should be made to Dance Expressions.
- If tuition is not paid on the first of each month a $20 late fee will be charged to your account.
- There is a $30 service charge for any returned checks.
- Whether you are here or not tuition never changes.
- A $10 registration fee is due per new family at registration.
- Due to high demand for private lessons the student must attend class and be serious about dance.
- If absences get excessive, student will lose their spot to another student on the waiting list.
- Whether you are here or not you will pay the full tuition. If you fail to pay the full amount your private lesson will be canceled and another student will take your private lesson time slot.
